1	CONCURRENT RESOLUTION ENCOURAGING CONGRESS TO
2	PROPOSE AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF
3	THE UNITED STATES
4	2018 GENERAL SESSION
5	STATE OF UTAH
6	Chief Sponsor: Steve Eliason
7	Senate Sponsor: Curtis S. Bramble
9	LONG TITLE
10	General Description:
11	This concurrent resolution of the Legislature and the governor petitions the Congress of
12	the United States to propose an amendment to the United States Constitution, for
13	submission to the states for ratification, to provide that the legislature of any state may
14	empower the executive of the state to make temporary appointments to fill a vacancy in
15	the United States House of Representatives for that state until the people fill the
16	vacancy by election as the legislature may direct.
17	Highlighted Provisions:
18	This resolution:
19	 recognizes that the United States Constitution, by not permitting a temporary
20	appointment to fill a vacancy in the United States House of Representatives, leaves
21	a state without its full representation in Congress until the vacancy can be filled by a
22	special election;
23	 recognizes that the United States Constitution provides that, for a vacancy in the
24	Senate, a state legislature "may empower the executive thereof to make temporary
25	appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may
26	direct"; and
27	 petitions the Congress of the United States to propose an amendment to the United
28	States Constitution, for submission to the states for ratification, to provide that the
29	legislature of any state may empower the executive of the state to make temporary appointments to fill a vacancy in the United States House of Representatives for that state until the people fill the vacancy by election as the legislature may direct.

 Special Clauses:

None None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, United States Constitution, Article I, Section 2, Clause 4, provides that "When vacancies happen in the Representation from any State, the Executive Authority thereof shall issue Writs of Election to fill such vacancies";

WHEREAS, in 1913, the Seventeenth Amendment to the United States Constitution was ratified, providing for the popular election of senators and providing that, for a Senate vacancy, "the legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct";

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution does not provide for a temporary appointment to fill a vacancy in the United States House of Representatives;

WHEREAS, when a vacancy occurs in the United States House of Representatives, the state represented by the person who vacated the office is left without representation in that office until a special election is held to fill the vacancy; and

WHEREAS, United States Constitution, Article V, provides, in part, that "Congress, whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose Amendments to this Constitution . . . which . . . shall be valid to all Intents and Purposes, as Part of this Constitution, when ratified by the Legislatures of three fourths of the several States . . . ":

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, hereby petitions the Congress of the United States to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, for submission to the states for ratification, to provide that the legislature of any state may empower the executive of the state to make temporary appointments to fill a vacancy in the United States House of Representatives for that state until the people fill the vacancy by election as the legislature may direct.
